

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ## Horse-Matches, &c.

It has been again the Pleasure of the Crown, in this present Year 1730, to give (as in the past Year 1729) thirteen Prizes to be run for in England and one in Scotland, consisting (as in the said past Year) of an hundred Guineas each in Specie, and run for under the same Limitations and Circumstances also, only that several of them varied in point of time.

However, the first and second of the same, were again run for at New-market, which Circumstance (through Conformity to my Method originally Propos'd) confines me to continue to begin with New-market.

At which Place the Sport of the Year, the Matches, Plates, Prizes, &c. and the Horses concern'd and their Places were as follows.

PROPOSALS

For PRINTING by

SUBSCRIPTION,

Once a Year for 7 Years successively

AN Historical LIST of all Horse-Matches run, and of all Plates and Prizes run for in England, of the Value of ten Pounds and upwards, in each particular Year of the seven preceeding, the Publication of each Book.

Containing the Name of the Owner of each Horse, Mare, or Gelding, that run as above, and Name and Colours of the said Horses also.

With the Winner distinguish'd of every Match, Plate, Prize or Stakes; the Weight that's carry'd at every Place of running, the Size of the Gallows, &c. are measur'd to, and the Places in which that losing Horses come in; to which will Annually be added a List of the principal Cock-Matches of the respective Year, and who were the Winners and Losers of them, &c,

The

This Work will be publish'd every Year about Christmas, for Seven Years successively beginning in 1727.

As the same appearing Annually, in the midst of Winter, will be an agreeable Amusement in that dull unactive Season, rendring Gentlemen capable, even in their Chambers, of diverting themselves with a Prospect, as it were, of the Sport of each past Year, so also must the Advantage be considerable in Point of Practice, each Book discovering what Horses are moving in all Parts of the Kingdom, and what Figure every particular one of 'em has, made at the Places of his running the Season before; what Alterations, different Weights, and different Courses, and different Seasons, of the Year has caus'd in any of them. From hence 'twill be always discoverable what old Horses are dropping, and how they decline and go off; what young Horses are every Year coming up; and by what Steps they advance and improve, &c. Which must render Gentlemen capable of reducing their Calculations nearer to 'perfection, and consequently of Matching or betting with greater advantage.

The Conditions are, That half a Crown be paid at Subscribing, and five Shillings Annually, in the said 7 Years, at the delivery of a Book, the last Year only excepted, in which only half a Crown is to be paid, which with the half Crown receiv'd in hand, will make five Shillings for the last, or seventh Book.

Notice will Annually be given in the Papers as soon the Work is Printed, and where, in London; ready to be deliver'd out;

By JOHN CHENY.
N. B.

N. B. The fore-going Book is the fourth of the Seven, of which a Number is Printed, more than are subserib'd for, with which any Gentleman, &c. may be furnish'd, if pleas'd to Subscribe for the three succeeding ones also.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are take by Mr. Roger William's at his Coffee-House in St. James's-street; by Mr. Feales, Bookfeller, at Row's-Head in St. Clement's-Church-Yard in the Strand, London; by the said John Cheny as he travels to take his Accounts, and at Inns, Coffee-Houses, &c. in most of the Towns in England.
